

Hey Lakes Jam Fans!

Get ready for some “Heartache Medication” as we “Lay it Down” for you.....

Due to this “Crazy Bitch”, to quote one of our past bands, we have gone "Round & Round" and stayed “Up All Night” and come to the conclusion that June 24th – 27th is no longer an option due to recent news by the governor.

However, don’t go “Head over Boots” just yet! Lakes Jam is moving to August 5th–8th of 2020, YES THIS YEAR, at BIR!

Hopefully it won’t be much longer that “Buy My Own Drinks” is your new normal and you can join the festival world again!

We have worked all year for this, “Prayed for You” and aren’t ready to give up on yall! We have many details to finalize as “Time Marches On”, so please be patient with us.

We are currently working to retain as much of our talent as possible! Jon Pardi and the Fri night lineup will now be Thu Aug 6th. RATT and the rock lineup will be moved to Sat Aug 8th. Brothers Osborne may have to be replaced due to a previous engagement. The original Sat lineup will be moved to Friday Aug 7th. Hairball will perform Wed Aug 5th.

We will have an update again within the next few weeks in regards to the rest of the artists but we believe much of the lineup will remain the same!

If you would like to exchange a Thu/Fri/Sat single day pass for a different day, please email info@lakesjam.com and include your original confirmation or order number. If you purchased a single day ticket at a ticket outlet store, please let us know that in the email. You won’t go back to the store, we will handle it for you.

Please direct any other questions to info@lakesjam.com

Thanks for your patience in these crazy times!

The Lakes Jam Team!
